

Determining Income Eligibility as of 6/3/2022 state email

Per state email from JFS Workforce, the 2022 poverty guideline and the LLSIL have been released and the new chart is attached.
 The chart may also be found on the OWD website's Policy Page under WIOAPL No. 15-19.1 (Poverty Income Guidelines and Lower Living Standard Income Level) at http://ifs.ohio.gov/owd/WorkforceProf/policy_info.stm.

For purposes of WIOA youth program eligibility and adult service priority, individuals meet the definition of low-income if their family income does not exceed the poverty line, or 70 percent of the LLSIL, whichever is greater for that family size.

If the amount is gray, then the poverty income guideline is the higher amount to be used for the household.
 WDB motion 14-20 on 11/2/20 for Adult and DW to use 200% LLSIL metro guidelines for all four counties

ELIGIBILITY FOR WIOA ADULT

Yes No Is the Adult applicant based on “Individual” income Self-Sufficient? Using size of 1, an adult whose “individual” income exceeds 200% of the Lower Living Income Standard Level (LLSIL) is considered to be self-sufficient and may receive “Career Services” only.

Yes No Is the Adult applicant based on “Family” income Self-Sufficient? Using Item (C) of “HOUSEHOLD SIZE AND INCOME”, an adult whose “household” income exceeds 200% of the Lower Living Income Standard Level (LLSIL) is considered to be family self-sufficient and is not eligible for services through an Individual Training Account (ITAs). Other WIOA services may be provided, as appropriate.

Yes No N/A Does the applicant meet one of the criteria for priority? If the county has a waiting list for ITAs, priority of Service for career and training services funded by and provided through the adult program shall be given to the following groups; one of the following MUST be marked:

- recipients of public assistance, other low-income individuals OR
- individual who is basic skills deficient

ELIGIBILITY FOR WIOA DISLOCATED WORKER

Yes No N/A If employed, is the employment “interim employment”? Employment is considered to be interim normally if the salary is below the salary of the DW’s primary occupation; and/or if the DW is working under the skill level of his/her customary occupation; and/or if the interim employment does provide a sufficient wage temporarily but is not considered permanent employment that leads to self-sufficiency (e.g., job with temp agency).

STOP If “yes” (interim employment), the individual is considered unemployed and entered into OWCMS as so.

CONTINUE If “no” (not interim employment), determination of self-sufficiency must be reviewed for eligibility. Complete following question:

Yes No N/A If employed and not interim employment, is the Dislocated Worker Self-Sufficient? An individual (based on the size of the household) who is earning an income annualized being greater than 200% of the LLSIL to support the family size or employed at the Dislocated Workers Layoff wage, whichever is greater. “When determining wage for self-sufficiency, all income is considered, including alimony, rental income, worker’s compensation, net receipts from farm self-employment, regular payments from pension or retirement system, regular payments from social security disability insurance (RSDI), etc” Per email of Julie Wart dated 4/13/16; see WIOAPL 15-09 and OVER Policy Letter No. 6-15 for further guidance.

Terminated or Laid Off, or Received a Notice of Termination or Layoff from Employment

Has been terminated or laid off or has received a notice of termination or layoff from employment; AND
One of these 2 must be checked:

- Is eligible for or has exhausted entitlement to unemployment compensation; OR
- Has been employed for a duration sufficient to demonstrate attachment to the workforce, but is not eligible for unemployment compensation due to insufficient earnings or having performed services for an employer that were not covered under a state unemployment compensation law; AND
- Is “unlikely to return” to a previous industry or occupation.

Justification for “unlikely to return” to previous Industry or Occupation Form WIOA Policy Letter No. 15-02: Unlikely to return to previous industry or occupation: An individual who is laid off and falls into one of the following categories... Mark the one that applies & provide documentation.

- The number of jobs in the applicant's previous industry/occupation is declining based on Labor Market Information (LMI) data;
- The projected annual increase in employment growth within the local area based on LMI or O*Net is fewer than 100 jobs in the previous industry (including replacements) or the projected annual increase in growth openings is fewer than 30 jobs in the previous occupation;
- The applicant is dislocated from a job not found on the most recent local or state list of demand occupations (if applicable);
- The applicant has conducted a dedicated but unsuccessful job search in the previous industry/occupation, as evidenced by employer rejection letters or employer contact logs;
- Evidence, preferably from several sources including OhioMeansJobs.com, professional journals, etc., of few openings in the previous industry or occupation; or
- The applicant is unable to perform the duties of the previous job due to age, ability, or disability (as defined in this section).
- The applicant has been either permanently or temporarily dislocated from a job as a result of a COVID-19 related shutdown or layoff.

- Reemployment Services and Eligibility Assessment (RESEA) The Ohio Job Insurance (OJI) system selects claimants who have no return to work date, are not job attached, have received a first UC payment, and were previously employed in a declining industry for participation in both programs. These selected claimants are considered to be unlikely to return to their previous occupations or industries.
- Trade Eligible. Applicants are considered to be dislocated workers under Category A when the affected worker provides a copy of the petition approval letter or a screen shot from the "Program Data" tab on "Basic Intake" from the Ohio Workforce Case Management System (OWCMS) indicating that the individual is trade eligible.
- Locked-out Workers. Locked-out workers are considered to be dislocated worker under Category A when an ODJFS Office of Unemployment Compensation hearing officer has issued a determination that a lockout exists. The listing of ODJFS Unemployment Compensation lockouts can be found at: http://jfs.ohio.gov/owd/WorkforceProf/policy_info.stm.
- Buyouts and Forced or Early Retirements. Workers who receive buyouts or who are forced to retire are considered dislocated workers under Category A when all of the following conditions are met. Workers in the situation listed are considered to be preserving the jobs for employees with less seniority. The employer has offered a buyout or early retirement or forced an early retirement as a means to reduce its workforce by providing a financial incentive for long-term (and therefore better paid) workers to leave their employment; and The participating workers would not be voluntarily leaving their positions or retiring from employment at this time; and The worker is eligible for Unemployment Insurance (UI); and Is unlikely to return to a previous industry or occupation.
- Transitioning Service Members and Recently Separated Veterans. Dislocated worker funds can help transitioning service members or recently separated veterans enter or reenter the civilian labor force. If the transitioning service member or the recently separated veteran is separating from the Armed Forces with a discharge that is anything other than dishonorable, the transitioning service member or recently separated veteran qualifies for dislocated worker activities based on the following criteria: The transitioning service member or recently separated veteran has received a notice of separation, a DD-214 from the Department of Defense, or other documentation showing a separation or imminent separation from the Armed Forces to satisfy the termination or layoff part of the dislocated worker eligibility criteria; The transitioning service member or recently separated veteran qualifies for the dislocated worker eligibility criteria on eligibility for or exhaustion of unemployment compensation; and As a transitioning service member or recently separated veteran service member, the individual meets the dislocated worker eligibility criteria that the individual is unlikely to return to a previous industry or occupation.
